

CBS RADIO INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Internships at CBS Radio are offered to college sophomores, juniors and seniors, as well as graduate students who are interested in a career in broadcasting. Typically participants major in communications or journalism, but broadcasting is comprehensive enough to interest students who major in English, History, Political Science, Fine Arts, Marketing, Computer Science, and other studies. There are many departments within CBS Radio, and many very different opportunities for internships.

REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURE:

Prospective interns must be the following:

- College sophomores, juniors, seniors or graduate students who can receive academic credit for their internship.

Prospective interns must complete the enclosed application form and return it with the following:

- A resume detailing previous work experience and education.
- Section III of the application completed by the student's advisor verifying:
 - the number of credits to be earned for the internship
 - the minimum number of hours required by the student to receive these credits
 - the school's requirements for term papers and written supervisory evaluation for the internship

Internships are available for all semesters, throughout the year.

Intern applications are generally accepted starting:

- November 1st for Spring Semester - Deadline December 15th
- February 1st for Summer Semester - Deadline March 15th
- July 1st for Fall Semester – Deadline August 15th

Send your application and all appropriate paperwork to:

CBS Radio Internship Program
c/o Melissa Sullivan
83 Leo Birmingham Parkway
Brighton, MA 02135

Students are required to interview for their internships.

This will be a meeting at the station with the Internship Coordinator

ONCE ACCEPTED INTO THE PROGRAM, INTERNS MUST:

- Receive no monetary compensation, regardless of the number of hours scheduled.
- Internship hours are typically 15 hours per week
- Sign an “Acknowledgment of the Terms & Conditions of CBS Radio Internships”.
- Ride in company vehicles only when a seat with a seat belt is available.
- Cover all transportation costs (except costs incurred while traveling for business purposes requested by the station), meals, and any other financial obligations.

CBS BOSTON INTERN POLICY:

The help we receive from student interns is a privilege, and not entitlement. The relationship enhances the efficiency of the station. In return, we have an obligation to give back to the students a unique career experience of equal value (at least) to the effort they invest.
