The Pan-Mass Challenge (PMC) raises funds for Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and the Jimmy Fund’s lifesaving mission to conquer cancer. In 2016, committed riders, donors, sponsors, and volunteers joined together to contribute $47 million. This chart shows how Dana-Farber allocates these funds to bring us closer by the mile.

- $9.5M Longwood Center: state-of-the-art research labs
- $8.1M Faculty Development: recruitment and lab support
- $7.0M Precision Cancer Medicine
- $6.2M Pediatric Oncology
- $3.3M Adult Oncology
- $3.1M Hematologic Oncology
- $2.3M Experimental Therapeutics
- $1.6M Center for Immuno-Oncology
- $1.5M Gastrointestinal Oncology
- $1.4M Nursing and Patient Care
- $1.3M Centers for Genomic and DNA Repair
- $900,000 Women’s Cancers
- $600,000 Sarcoma and Bone Cancers
- $200,000 Other Designations (Joint Ventures, Oncologic Pathology, Psychosocial Oncology)

This chart depicts rider designated funds in addition to unrestricted funds raised, and reflects how unrestricted funds are directed in accordance with Institute budget priorities.